Koren Is Chosen For Ambassador

Associated Press

Henry L. T. Koren, a career diplomat, was nominated yesterday by President Johnson to be Ambassador to the Republic of Congo, Brazzaville. For the last two years, Koren has served as the director of the State Department's Office of Southeast Asian Affairs.

Koren, 53, a native of Princeton, N.J., left the banking business to serve as an artillery officer in the Army in World War II. He was attached to the Central Intelligence Agency in 1947.
